QUICK FACTS

- Over 60,000 of our neighbors in Greenville County are living in poverty.[1]

- Over 87 percent of all adults over the age of 25 have a high school diploma or higher, yet median real household income across Greenville County has decreased by nearly 9 percent since 1990.[2]

- Thirty six percent of households in Greenville County spend 25 percent or more of their income on rental costs (up from 23 percent in 1990).[3]

- Nearly 11,000 people under the age of 65 do not have health insurance.[4]

- During the 2017-2018 school year, nearly 1,100 Greenville County students were homeless — a number that has increased 113 percent since 2012.[5]

[1,4] US Census Bureau Data, 2016

[2,3] Furman/United Way Study, Phase 2, 2017

[5] Greenville Journal, 1 Aug 2018